

Representative of the Turkish Flour Industrialists' Federation makes a presentation at the conference "Grain Industry - 2013: processing, new markets, innovations"

Vural KURAL, General Secretary of the Turkish Flour Industrialists' Federation (TFIF), makes the presentation at the twelfth international conference "Grain Industry - 2013: processing, new markets, innovations".

The trends and development directions of the world market of wheat flour are the main theme of the report of Mr Vural. Also, the forecasts of production and trade prospects for wheat flour on the world stock exchanges are some of the key points of the presentations.

Turkish Flour Industrialist Federation (TFIF) was effectively founded in March 2005. Being the highest umbrella organization of the flour sector, TFIF is making efforts to meet the needs of the sector while seeking solutions to its problems and contributing to its stable growth.

Its functions based on a sector-wise perspective and has an integrated structure comprising eight associations and 388 members as well as all stakeholders in the sector throughout Turkey which is also reflected by the composition of its board of directors and the spectrum of its members.

TFIF is a key organization which has the potential of making significant contributions to industry and economy based on its strategy and vision comprising both today and the future and its approach to the need to offer more comprehensive and improved services to flour sector.

You can meet the Secretary General of the Turkish Flour Industrialists' Federation (TFIF) at the twelfth international conference "Grain Industry - 2013: processing, new markets, innovations" on May 23-24, 2013 Ukraine, Odessa, hotel "Bristol". The event is organized by APK-Inform Agency.